

THE SUCTION SOCKET

Handle to facilitate drawing the stockinette from the amputation stump

BY

SVEN KIÆR

Patients with above-knee artificial leg, particularly the double amputees, have often some difficulty in pulling the stockinette out through the hole for the valve in the socket.

Our workshop have designed a handle which in a simple way solves the problem.